

Please note that Section 504(b) of the Right-to-Know Law ("RTKL") requires that an agency post certain information at the agency and on the agency's website, if the agency maintains a website. An agency must post:

- Contact information for the agency open records officer.
- Contact information for the Office of Open Records or other applicable appeals officer.
- A form which may be used to file a request.
- Agency regulations, policies and procedures related to the RTKL.

- The agency posted all information required by Section 504(b) of the RTKL at the agency and on the agency's Internet website.
- The agency posted all information required by Section 504(b) of the RTKL at the agency and the agency does not maintain an Internet website.
- None of the above.
